

1. What do you think?

Chang Yew (middle)

2. Vocabulary

Fill in the blanks in the sentences below using words from the box.

ethnic	contributions	chef	diaspora
consumption	heritage	emerges	perception
stoker	crew	artisans

1. The person who puts the coal into the furnace (firebox) of a steamship or train is a _____.
2. The cabin _____ are the air hostesses and stewards that work on a plane. This word also describes the people who work on a ship.
3. When something becomes visible (we can see it) we say it _____.
4. _____ are skilled workers who are good at making things with their hands. They make things such as leather goods and ceramics.
5. Our _____ is made up of our cultural traditions, historic buildings and things that have been passed down from previous generations.
6. The spreading out of any people who leave their homeland to live in a new country is called the _____.
7. The act of eating, drinking or using up something. The _____ of coffee is increasing in Hong Kong.
8. A _____ is someone who cooks food in a restaurant or on a ship. They are seen as more skilled than “cooks”.
9. A subgroup of people with the same cultural identity who live in a larger group. Indians and Chinese and West Indians make up some of the largest _____ groups in the UK.
10. _____ is our awareness and how we see something. My view of the UK is different to yours.
11. Many foreigners have made great _____ (given things that have helped to advance the nation) to the UK.

2. Vocabulary

Fill in the blanks in the sentences below using words from the box.

ethnic	contributions	chef	diaspora
consumption	heritage	emerges	perception
stoker	crew	artisans

1. The person who puts the coal into the furnace (firebox) of a steamship or train is a stoker.
2. The cabin crew are the air hostesses and stewards that work on a plane. This word also describes the people who work on a ship.
3. When something becomes visible (we can see it) we say it emerges.
4. Artisans are skilled workers who are good at making things with their hands. They make things such as leather goods and ceramics.
5. Our heritage is made up of our cultural traditions, historic buildings and things that have been passed down from previous generations.
6. The spreading out of any people who leave their homeland to live in a new country is called the diaspora.
7. The act of eating, drinking or using up something. The consumption of coffee is increasing in Hong Kong.
8. A chef is someone who cooks food in a restaurant or on a ship. They are seen as more skilled than “cooks”.
9. A subgroup of people with the same cultural identity who live in a larger group. Indians and Chinese and West Indians make up some of the largest ethnic groups in the UK.
10. Perception is our awareness and how we see something. My view of the UK is different to yours.
11. Many foreigners have made great contributions (given things that have helped to advance the nation) to the UK.