

2. Vocabulary

Fill in the blanks in the sentences below using words from the box.

era	run-of-the-mill	defecate	hilarious
celebrity	buckle up	disruptive
unruly	peasant	yanked

1. The student was very disruptive. He shouted in class and got so excited he began to run around the room.
2. A peasant is somebody who comes from a village and knows very little about city life. If we call someone this nowadays, it implies that person is badly educated and impolite.
3. The comedy show was hilarious. I laughed so much I nearly split my sides.
4. When you get into a car, you must buckle up, even if you are sitting in the back. If the car crashes, it could save your life.
5. He yanked the window open so hard he broke it.
6. An unruly person is someone who does not control himself and is disruptive. Teachers do not like students like this.
7. Some owners let their dogs defecate on the pavement and then don't bother to clean up the mess. It's disgusting!
8. A celebrity is a famous person.
9. The restaurant we went to was nothing special – run-of-the-mill. (meaning it was not special and very ordinary).
10. A period of time marked by a distinctive character. The Roman era changed the face Europe dramatically.