Circular No. 163 (25-26)

8th January, 2026

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Re: PolyU SCIENCE Young Talents Competition 2026 (PU SYTC)

The PolyU SCIENCE Young Talents Competition 2026 (PU SYTC) is organized by the Faculty of Science of the Hong Kong Polytechnic University. This prestigious competition offers secondary school students an unparalleled platform to explore their potential. Participating teams will navigate a dynamic two-round challenge: an initial assessment of theoretical knowledge during the Preliminary Round, followed by an immersive Final Competition. Qualified teams progressing to the Final Competition will gain invaluable hands-on experience, conducting exciting experiments within PolyU's cutting-edge laboratories and exploring advanced research facilities firsthand.

All assessments are thoughtfully designed around three core scientific disciplines: Biology and Food Science, Chemistry, and Physics. Beyond the enriching experience, the top 10 winning teams will be recognised for their excellence with attractive cash prizes.

Details of the preliminary round of the competition are as follows:

Date : 17th Jan 2026 (Sat)
Time : 10:30 am – 12:00 noon
Venue : Main Campus, PolyU (exact location to be announced)
Gathering : 10:00 a.m. at Hung Hom MTR Station Exit A1 leading to the Pao Yue-Kong Library of Main Campus

Dismissal : 12:15 p.m. at Main Campus, PolyU

Teacher-in-charge : Mr. Li Chi Yip Leo
